

14th Asia Oil & Gas Conference - 7th June to 9th June 2009, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

The 14th Asia Oil & Gas Conference (AOGC) will be held from 7 - 9 June 2009 at the Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre, Kuala Lumpur. The theme of the conference is "Collective Approach in the New Paradigm".

The Asia Oil & Gas Conference was first held in 1996 and has become an annual event well noted by the members in the oil & gas fraternity.

Petroleum Nasional Berhad (PETRONAS) has been managing and organising this event with highly reputable Co-Managers; Conference Connection Inc. (CCI), Malaysian Institute of Economic Research (MIER) and PFC Energy.

Through the years, the conference has gained a high reputation as a prestigious annual forum. AOGC attracts not only industry players but also industry leaders, experts and decision makers to discuss, exchange and reflect information as well as to deliberate on issues and challenges confronting the oil & gas industry. In addition, it serves as a platform for industry players to strategically and effectively face the current and upcoming challenges.

AOGC provides the medium for active discussion on the industry's current issues between a panel of prominent speakers and industry experts.

The conference is led by an Advisory Panel made up of the Presidents and CEOs of seven different NOCs from Malaysia, Indonesia, Philippines, Singapore, Brunei Thailand and Vietnam. The Management Council is made up of representatives of PETRONAS, Shell, BP Asia Pacific, ExxonMobil, Mitsubishi Corporation, Murphy Oil and FACTS Global Energy Group. With such an august group heading the event the conference is sure to be relevant and informative to industry personnel.
